

CIVIL SERVICE LIST IS USED TO FILL POLICE JOBS

Two present members of the Gettysburg police department, serving under war-time emergency appointments, received permanent appointments at Monday night's meeting of the borough council in the engine house, and two more, one of them working under a temporary appointment, were named to the force, filling vacancies which had existed since the resignations of C. William Zhea and Clark W. Staley.

The three present employees appointed from a civil service list obtained as the result of a recent examination, are Albert L. Wolford, Kenneth M. Tawney and Daniel P. Miller. The fourth appointee from the list is Ralph L. Fissel, Chief of Police Robert C. Harpster, who took a non-competitive examination, was also given a permanent appointment.

Used Civil Service List
The Civil Service commission submitted a list of six names from which the borough council could appoint. War veterans received ten per cent additional on their standings. Wolford led the list with 87 per cent; Tawney as second with 85; Stanley M. Sprankle third with 82; Miller fourth with 71; Fissel fifth with 66 and Ray J. Little sixth with 60 per cent.

The council made the first appointment from the first three names on the list, and then included the next name each in successive balloting. The policemen were chosen by secret vote.

Voting first on the names of Wolford, Tawney and Sprankle, council named Wolford. He received seven votes and Tawney one. On the next ballot voting on Tawney, Sprankle and Miller, Tawney received all eight votes of the councilmen present.

A tie vote resulted on the balloting on Sprankle, Miller and Fissel, Miller and Fissel each receiving three votes and Sprankle two. On the run-off vote, Fissel received four; Miller three and Sprankle one. Voting on Sprankle, Miller and Little for the fourth place to be filled, council gave six for Miller and two for Sprankle.

EASTERN AREA BOARDS GUESTS OF NEW OXFORD

New Oxford's school board Monday evening played host to the school boards surrounding that community.

The occasion was to permit the boards to become better acquainted and to permit those boards which are sending students to New Oxford's junior and senior high schools to have a say in the education of their youngsters.

Attending the meeting were members of the Adams County Board of Education and the Abbottstown, Berwick, Hamilton, Mt. Pleasant, New Oxford, Straban and Tyrone boards.

Costs Will Drop
Curtis S. Sponseller, president of the New Oxford board, introduced those present and presided at the meeting. Ivan R. Mechtly, supervising principal at New Oxford, outlined the program planned for the high school this coming year, and then discussed with the board members the proposed plans.

Luther E. Jacobs, Gettysburg R. 3, president of the county board, extended greetings from the county group to the directors and urged that the men consider themselves as the "eastern area" of Adams county rather than as individual communities or townships. The area, he added, is as much a community as is the upper section of Adams county or the "lower section" surrounding Littlestown.

Dr. Robert A. Bream, assistant county superintendent of schools, per pupil is coming down next year per pupil is coming down next year because of the increased enrollment of students at New Oxford high school.

MAKE PLANS FOR DEMONSTRATION AT PENN STATE

Adams county's part in the workshop to be held for nutrition workers in seven states at Pennsylvania State College this summer was outlined this morning at a meeting of Red Cross, home economics department heads and other officials at the Red Cross office.

According to present plans, 20 elementary students of East Berlin high school will present a demonstration of the type of nutrition class conducted in the Adams county elementary schools last winter.

After the demonstration in which the group hopes to show how high school economics students act as assistant teachers under the high school home economics and the elementary teachers, the elementary children are scheduled to put on a health play they developed among themselves.

The program by the youngsters will be presented starting at (Please turn to Page 2)

STORM HARD ON TOWN'S FLAGS, COUNCIL HEARS

The borough's street decorations—flags and banners strung across the streets—took a terrific "beating" from the windstorm which accompanied the deluge of rain last Thursday night, on the eve of Memorial Day, Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner reported to borough council Monday night at the engine house.

Winebrenner made his report as the question of placing the decorations for Flag Day, June 14, was brought up. A letter from George Bushman, chairman of the Elks and general committee arranging a Flag Day observance, to be held Monday evening, June 16, was read.

Council directed that flags be placed around the square and that banners be strung across the streets for one block each way from the square.

Committee To Investigate
The question of buying new flags and banners was turned over to the property committee for investigation. Winebrenner reported that of the old flags used as holiday decorations on the light poles, not more than six are left, and that ten of the old streamers are "shot." While the new flags, purchased last year, survived the windstorm and rain, most of the old flags were "cut to pieces," Winebrenner said. Only one of the new streamers, also bought in 1946, was damaged, he said.

There are only enough flags left for Center Square, the engineer reported.

Council adopted an ordinance for a new street lighting contract, to run from July 1, 1947 to July 1, 1957. The contract is for the overhead type of street lights, and does not affect the ornamental type, contract for which will not run out yet.

Discuss Queen Street
Edward H. Blettner, Hanover, representing the Metropolitan Edison company, said that under the old contract, which expires July 1, the yearly charge for 197 lights of approximately 100 candlepower each, and 54,218 feet of line, was $3,205.32 a year. The new contract provides for 201 lights and 55,525 feet of line at a cost of $272.93 per month, or $3,275.16 a year.

Authority was given the borough engineer to widen the present culch.

Had Perfect Record In Spelling For Year

Three local girls who were graduated from the eighth grade at the Lincoln school on Monday set an unusual record in spelling by going through the entire year without misspelling a single word in daily lessons or review tests.

Jean Mountain, Darlene Topper and Doris Trimmer spelled correctly all of the 1,055 words in 37 lessons and tests during the year. Teachers said this is not the first time a pupil has made a perfect spelling record in the eighth grade there but never before did three pupils achieve perfection in spelling in the same class.

Jean Mountain was the winner of top scholastic honors for girls in the class and all three were among the students on the fourth quarter honor roll.

Canning Company Helps Girl Scouts

This is the first appeal for funds ever made by the Girl Scouts of the county. For thirteen years the organization has financed itself. Now, under its expansion program designed to include every girl in the county from 7 to 18 years of age, it is asking for financial assistance.

Donors are asked to send their contributions to Mrs. P. J. McGlynn, Biglerville, to any member of the Council, leader or committee chairman or to the Adams County Girl Scout council, Gettysburg, Pa.

36 Undesirable Germans, 7 Ex-Criminals, Are Deported

By DONALD DOANE

Ludwigsburg, Germany, June 3 (AP)—Thirty-six Germans deported by the United States—the department called them "a cargo of human dynamite"—will be freed in their fatherland in the next few days.

"We're giving them back to the Germans," said an official at the repatriation center here where they are to be released.

Seven of the men were convicted criminals. The other 29 were declared "too dangerous to stay in the United States" and included Nazi sympathizers, German-American Bundists, draft dodgers and the like. Most of them were interned in the United States during the war.

To reporters, the group protested today against their deportation and said they had done nothing to deserve it.

Karl Jacobsen, a German-born sailor who renounced his American citizenship, said he dislikes "nearly everything American" and "would rather live in Germany than in America." But, he added a little later, "If I don't like it here, I'll travel again."

Walter Hagen, 45, a former New York city milkman, who had spent 22 years in the United States, was arrogant and sour.

EARLY HISTORY OF PHOTOGRAPHY TOLD ROTARIANS

The growth of photo journalism was described and illustrated to the local Rotary club Monday evening at its regular meeting in the YWCA by Walter Lane, former Time and Life photographer and now head of the Lane studio here.

The camera, Lane told the group, grew out of man's desire to make pictures of what went on about him, apparent even in the stone age days when man lived in caves—and drew pictures on the wall of the animal life he had seen.

Aristotle first discovered the principles of the camera obscura when he went into a darkened room in which a small hole in the wall permitted light to enter and reflected the scene outside on the opposite wall. Later artists built their own "camera obscuras" and went about the countryside with them. Inside the darkened room they would sketch the scene reflected by the light. Later a dark box was built with a lens and with a ground glass on the back. Artists would trace the picture shown on the back and thus (Please Turn to Page 5)

School Children Tour Field; Visit Library

For the last two years the Adams County Free Library's bookmobile has been taking the library to the school children of the county but today the 36 pupils of Liberty Hall's school in Liberty township came to see the main library here for the first time.

Accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Ruthetta Sheads, the school boys and girls are spending the day visiting Gettysburg and the battle-field.

Mrs. E. S. Lewars, vice-president of the library's board of directors, met the group at the library and entertained them with stories of boys and girls she has used in many of her stories.

Both drivers will be arrested as a result of a two car collision three miles east of Littlestown on route 194 Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, state police reported today.

The cars were operated by D. E. Bortner, 65, Hanover and Charles F. Miller, Jr., 21, Gettysburg R. 1. Miller was traveling east and Bortner west, police say, when they sideswiped. Charges of failing to drive on their own sides of the road will be laid against both before a county justice of the peace. Damage totalled $325. No one was injured.

COUNTIAN TELLS OF UNRRA WORK THROUGH EUROPE

An Adams county native who is chief of the management branch of the London office of UNRRA made a flying trip here, arriving Monday evening and leaving at noon today.

The local woman, Ethel C. Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clapsaddle, Gettysburg R. 1, has been with the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Association since 1945 and is returning to London by June 16 in order to complete the work of closing its London office before being transferred to another international organization.

Describing the difficulties of handling the UNRRA work she added that possibly the most interesting work of the international rehabilitation organization has been the handling of the children stolen by Germany from other nations in Europe.

Repatriation Problem

"Most of the youngsters have been integrated into the German way of life," she told a reporter for The Gettysburg Times today, "and it is extremely difficult not only to find the children, but to return them. The Germans kept very methodical records and that has been a great help. But the tragic thing is the fact that many of these children have no place to go when they are returned to their native lands and they have become accustomed to Germany and to the way of life there. But the governments naturally seek the return of their people. Children who were very young were placed in German homes by the Nazis and were being brought up as Nazis. Those who were older and fit were used as slave labor and those children who were not fit were used by the Germans in laboratories.

"Now these youngsters are being returned. In many instances they have no parents, or relatives who have survived the war. The countries of which they are natives have established homes to care for them until the relatives or homes for them can be found.

"The problem of repatriation is probably one of the biggest of all—there are many people who do not (Please turn to Page 2)

2 YOUTHS HELD FOR ILLEGALLY CARRYING GUN

Charged with illegally carrying a revolver, Gerald D. Taylor, Biglerville R. 1, and Rodney C. Taylor, of the same Biglerville rural route, were held for court Monday night by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder, and released in $500 bail each.

State police, who filed the charges, alleged that both youths violated the state uniform firearms act on the night of May 29 by carrying a .22 caliber Harrington and Richardson Sportsman revolver, owned by Rodney Taylor, in their cars.

Authorities said that the latter, owner of the revolver, had it in his automobile when he started for Gettysburg to attend a baseball meeting at the court house here the night of May 29, and that Gerald Taylor picked up Rodney when the latter's car broke down, brought him, with the revolver, to Gettysburg, and while waiting for Rodney, (Please Turn to Page Two)

COUNCIL TABLES MOVE TO BUILD RAIL CROSSING

A proposal to have a new crossing built over the Reading Railroad tracks on West Lincoln avenue to the plant of the Inductive Equipment corporation, was tabled by borough council at its meeting in the engine house Monday night, with indications that the situation might eventually bring a showdown on all railroad crossings in the borough.

The crossing, if built by the borough, will cost the latter $2,330, with the borough paying 50 per cent of the cost of installing flasher signals, but there was opposition to spending the money unless the Inductive Equipment corporation, which stands to benefit most by the new crossing, makes a "substantial" contribution.

Councilman Wilbur Stallsmith, Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner and Edmund W. Thomas, president of the First National bank, conferred with Reading officials in Philadelphia, they reported, and said that the railroad insisted that the borough "go fifty-fifty" on the cost of the flasher lights.

Other Crossings Cited

Borough Solicitor Eugene V. Bulleit said that the Public Utilities commission would probably direct this division of the cost if the matter were brought before it.

The question of installing lights at the proposed West Lincoln crossing brought up the fact that there are no lights or other protection at the North Washington and Fourth street crossings, both of which are used by many more persons, it was contended.

Attorney Bulleit and Engineer Winebrenner both said it would be more expensive to extend and relocate the crossing at its present site south of the proposed Lincoln avenue crossing than to build the latter. The present crossing is at an angle, and is not wide enough for two cars to pass, they said. Whichever crossing is chosen, flasher lights or some form of protection will have to be installed, it was claimed.

On motion of Councilman H. M. Oyer, the proposition was tabled for further consideration.

LEGION WILL TAKE PART IN FLAG DAY RITES

The Lentz post drum and bugle corps and all members of the post will participate in the Flag Day exercises here June 16, the members decided Monday evening at the regular meeting of the post at the Legion home on Baltimore street.

George W. Boehner, chairman of the drum corps committee, complimented the members of the corps for their appearance in the Memorial Day parade and then urged other Legion members to join the drum corps. There is no need for those interested to know anything about music, Boehner said, as the corps has a music teacher and those joining will be taught how to play a bugle or a drum and will be furnished the instrument and uniform. Present plans call for the corps, when it has sufficient practice, to take part in competition against other Legion drum corps, he added.

Fewer Summer Meetings

All members of the post were urged to meet at the Lentz post home at 6:30 o'clock on the evening of June 16 to form for the parade. The members will then march behind the drum corps to the place where the parade will form.

Because of the Flag Day exercises no meeting of the Lentz post will be held June 16, and because of the warm weather no meetings will be held on the third Mondays of July and August. Only one meeting a month will be held during those two months, on the first Mondays.

Three new members, Mahlon Plank Hartzell, Jr., and Maurice S. Weaver, of Gettysburg, and Ray Mitchell Shupe, Gettysburg R. 4, were accepted into the post.

More than 100 members attended Monday's meeting at which Commander Edward D. Culp presided.

350 students and is rapidly becoming one of the best in the county. The second junior-senior high set-up in the county was established at New Oxford. Two others are being formed.

Doctor Bream in his outline of the needs of rural children pointed out that they need vocational training, guidance, library facilities, industrial training and the like as do youngsters in larger sections. To obtain those advantages, smaller districts must work together, he added.

He presented a comparison of costs per pupil for those school districts sending pupils to the New Oxford junior-senior high school, Berwick township, which in 1946-47 had a reimbursement of $4.47 per pupil but obtained $20 per pupil reimbursement from the state for 1947-48, he said. The cost to Berwick per pupil of $60.60 in 1946-47 will be reduced to $51.44. All of the other districts showed similar increases in estimated reimbursement and decreases in net cost per pupil as a result of the increased student population at the New Oxford school, he said.

Discuss Jointure

Discussion of a possible jointure of the various boards in the New Oxford area disclosed that all would effect even greater savings. If a jointure were in existence next year, Berwick would have a net cost of $47 instead of $51.44 and if a union district were formed the estimated cost to Berwick per pupil next year would be $44, Doctor Bream said.

Dr. Bream then discussed the differences between jointures and union districts.

Luther M. Lady, Biglerville R. 2, vice president of the county board, discussed the experience of Arendtsville with a joint board and told of the jointure being completed in the upper part of the county between six districts there.

Zeal Peters, Aspers R. 1, treasurer of the county board, spoke of Tyron township's part in the proposed upper county jointure and explained there will probably be a division among the Tyron township students, with some, probably to be sent to New Oxford as being closer and in their natural area.

Asks "Consideration"

Following the regular meeting Monday night the Tyron and Straban township boards met to discuss tentatively possible arrangements between the townships.

Edgar W. Weaver, president of the Straban township board urged the New Oxford board to "give special consideration" to the needs of rural pupils and pointed out that "enlarged school systems can and must provide better teachers."

Among those attending the meeting were Luther E. Jacobs, Luther M. Lady, Lloyd E. Crouse, Raymond M. Baugher and Zeal R. Peters of the county board; Earl Alwine and G. David Hoke of the Abbottstown board; Harry C. Brinton, Mabel A. Brinton, John W. Lucabaugh, Earl O. Legore and Maurice Miller of the Berwick board; Lloyd Swope, John G. Myers and Paul Shultz of Hamilton board; Charles F. Myers, Philip Wagaman and Joseph A. Chrismer of Mt. Pleasant; Curtis Sponseller and Charles Slaybaugh of the New Oxford board; Edgar Weaver, Russell M. Spangler and Ralph W. Guise of Straban; Hiram Reck, Hilbert E. Hoffman and Melvin Breighner of Tyron; Superintendent Slaybaugh; Doctor Bream, Attorney J. Francis Yake, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Mechtly.

"Fired From Car"

Witnesses testified at a hearing Monday night for Rodney, that the revolver had been fired from Gerald's car at a school sign near the Belmont schoolhouse.

Two men, their wives, and children, were endangered, authorities said, because of the fact that the bullet fired at the school sign might have ricocheted and struck one of them. The men were engaged in making cement blocks for a new home. They chased the car, got its license number, and saw Rodney Taylor get out of it at the court house, they said.

Rodney, authorities said, had a "provisional firearms registration" which permitted him to carry a revolver for hunting and fishing, but they added that he was neither hunting nor fishing, nor going to nor returning from either of these pursuits. He said he had been shooting snakes in the afternoon.

Gerald Taylor signed a plea of guilty and was held for sentence court. Rodney was given a hearing and held for grand jury action. Both denied, however, shooting at the sign. A third youth involved has not been charged, authorities said.

want to be repatriated, for many reasons.

The London office of UNRRA is the European regional office and supervised work in some 13 countries. The size of the organization and its job brought many complications, she added. As an example she told of the shipment of horses to a Baltic country last winter.

"The horses were needed to build up the agriculture of the country. The ship had reached Rotterdam when it was learned that the Baltic was frozen and it would be impossible for the ship to continue. There was no food in Rotterdam for the horses and we had to scour Europe to find sufficient feed for them. The animals became sick and veterinarians had to be sent to Rotterdam to care for them. It was a minor skirmish, but it took tremendous effort to keep the horses alive so they could ultimately be taken to their destination.

"One of the great problems of UNRRA at the beginning was that of language and ideas. Each nation had its own way of doing things, the various workers could not understand each other. But it was all worked out and the group works together beautifully. In all 22 1/2 million tons of supplies were bought, shipped and turned over to the various governments.

But she refused to do so because she felt that she was working for an international organization and so had no claim on American origin."

She praised the British for their ability to "take it" and their pride in being able to undergo any privation.

While London was in "terrible shape" Germany is in much worse condition from bombing, she said. During a trip to Germany last fall during the harvest season she found that food production was still low despite the fact that every available inch was cultivated. Lack of fertilizer was blamed for the scarcity of the products.

FERRISS MAY YET REALIZE HIS AMBITION

By JOE RIECHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Dave (Boo) Ferriss may yet realize his ambition of joining Wes Ferrell, former Star Cleveland right-hander, as the only pitchers ever to win 20 or more games in each of their first four years in the majors.

The Boston Red Sox right-hander, who established an American league mark for pitchers in 1946 when he won 46 games in his first two seasons in the big time, is still two years away from the mark.

Along with the rest of the Red Sox staff, Dave looked far from impressive. Skeptics who early last season termed him a wartime pitcher and were fanned to eat their words, began to pop up again. "He needs lots of runs to win," they observed.

Three Hits Himself

Ferriss again yesterday proved that this was a wrong observation. Boston made only eight hits yesterday, three of which he contributed himself, but Dave gave up only seven and whipped the Chicago White Sox 6-2 at Comiskey Park to give the American league champions a split in their doubleheader. The White Sox outscored the Red Sox 6-5 in the nightcap.

It took strong hitting on his own part to win yesterday. He drove in three runs with a triple and a single and scored once to account for four of Boston's six runs.

A freak play helped give the White Sox the second game win. With the bases loaded in the fifth inning, Murrell Jones hit to Shortstop Johnny Pesky who flipped to Second Baseman Don Guttridge forcing Dave Philley. Philley slid in hard and put a football block on Guttridge, grounding the little infielder as Thurman Tucker and Jack Walaea hurried home with what proved to be the winning runs.

Johnny Neun's Cincinnati Reds knocked the New York Giants out of sole possession of the National league leadership when they handed previously unbeaten Clint Hartung his first setback of the season and crushed the Giants 9-3. The defeat dropped the Polo Ground crew into a tie for first place with the idle Chicago Cubs.

Lefty Howie Pollet pitched and batted the St. Louis Cardinals to a 5-4 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field. Pollet cracked a single in the 10th inning to score Enos Slaughter from second with the tie-breaking run.

Pittsburgh throttled a ninth inning rally by Boston and nosed out the Braves 4-3 in Boston. It was only the Pirates' second triumph in seven meetings with the Braves.

In a night game at St. Louis, the Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Browns, 6-3. The A's rocked Cliff Fannin for three runs in the second and scored what proved to be the winning run in the fifth when rookie first sacker Ferris Fain homered.

Scheduled doubleheaders between New York and Cleveland and Washington and Detroit were postponed because of rain.

JOE KIRKWOOD TOP QUALIFIER

Philadelphia, June 3 (P)—Trick shot artist Joe Kirkwood, Huntingdon Valley pro, will lead a field of five golfers from the Philadelphia area to St. Louis June 12-14 for the U. S. open title tournament.

Kirkwood came in ahead of 25 other pros and ten amateurs in the qualifying round yesterday at the blustery Rolling Green golf club with a 73-70—143, one over par for the 36 holes.

Dave Douglas, assistant pro to his father at Rock Manor country club, Wilmington, Del., was a stroke back of Kirkwood with 73-71—144.

Other qualifiers were George Fazio, Jeffersonville native who now plays from Beverly Hills, Calif., with 73-72—145; Amateur James B. McHale from Whitmarsh country club with 74-72—146, and Jack Grout, Harrisburg country club with 71-76—147.

Loses On Extra Hole
Ralph Hutchison, Saucon Valley country club, Bethlehem, also had 147 (74-73) but he lost the fifth qualifying place to Grout whose par three on the third extra hole of a "sudden death" duel eliminated Hutchison.

PGA President Ed Dudley tried his best to get into the qualifying bracket despite a high 79 for the first 18 holes. Troubled with a pulled side muscle, Dudley came back to take the afternoon 18 in 69 for the best round of the day but he missed getting in the last place playoff by one stroke.

Arrange Playoff Tilt At Fairfield

Gettysburg and Fairfield will play off a postponed Adams County Baseball league game Wednesday evening at 6:15 o'clock at Fairfield it was announced today.

The teams were scheduled to meet here last Friday morning but the contest was postponed because of wet grounds. Arrangements were made to transfer the contest to Fairfield where it will be played as a home game for Gettysburg.

LOCKE IS MAN TO BE BEATEN

New York, June 3 (P)—Bobby Locke, who has averaged something like $21.50 per stroke since forsaking the South African Veldt two months ago for the American long green, is still the guy the 170 other golfers must beat in the national open championship at St. Louis next week.

The Moguls of the U. S. Golf association decided that Bobby, who has already romped off with the top prize money in four of the six major American tournaments this year, would have to swing his clubs along with 1,317 other pros and amateurs competing in the qualifying round.

So Bobby hired himself out to Garden City yesterday to tee off in the field of 95 metropolitan district aspirants. He arrived late for the opening round, but the trial committee decided to let him play.

The smiling Afrikaner—"Puttin' Pete," the pros call him—put together Cards of 73 and 73 for a 36-hole total of 146 three over par. That placed him in a fifth-place tie with Fred Annon of Greenwich, Conn., and only one stroke under the qualifying limit.

SIMMONS MOWS DOWN 11 PHILS

Egypt, Pa., June 3 (P)—There may be some contention over the term, "moral victory," but if ever one was achieved, it was by an 18-year-old schoolboy named Curt Simmons.

That young worthy merely struck out 11 major leaguers in an exhibition baseball game with the Philadelphia Phillies of the National league.

But he had to be content with a 4-4 tie although two of the runs scored against him were unearned as his teammates on the Egypt club of the Lehigh Valley Twilight league committed five errors.

Simmons, all-American boy of 1945, limited the National leaguers to seven hits in the contest which was halted by darkness yesterday.

Sought By Majors

The youthful pitching and hitting ace is being sought by many major league clubs. He will be graduated from Whitehall (Pa.) high school Thursday and then the fun is expected to start.

Rumor has it that he has been offered as much as $25,000 to affix his signature to a major league contract.

In the game against the Phillies, Simmons took care of most of the Phil batting power via the strikeout route. Twice he whiffed Outfielder Johnny Wyrostek and Shortstop Jackie Albright.

And he fanned each of the following once: Outfielders Del Ennis

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Memorial Day: Memorial Day exercises at Gettysburg are always interesting. Those on Saturday will be remembered as among the most inspiring of the many similar services that have been held on this historic spot. The crowd was unusually large. The dust and wind were slight elements, but rain or excessive heat would have been worse.

The parade started promptly at one o'clock from the Diamond and marched directly to the National Cemetery, marshaled by Dr. C. E. Goldsborough, assisted by James Hersh, Harry F. Buehler, Dr. Harry Stewart and William B. McIlhenny, and headed by the Grand Army Band. The speaker of the day, the Burgess and Town Council in carriages followed. The Sons of Veterans, the Ladies Aid Society, the P. O. S. of A. and Corporal Skelly Post 9, G. A. R., made up the rest of the procession.

The children of the public schools were drawn up in line on Baltimore street, above High, and after viewing the parade, followed to the cemetery.

After the strewing of flowers by the Grand Army Veterans and the school children, the line of march was taken to the rostrum, where Rev. A. R. Steck called the assembled crowd to order and asked Rev. H. C. Alleman to invoke God's blessing on the services. Mr. Steck introduced Hon. A. L. Hager, of Iowa, the orator of the day. At the close of the eloquent and patriotic address, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. D. W. Woods, Jr.

St. Francis Xavier Commencement: The graduation exercises and annual entertainment by the pupils of St. Francis Xavier parochial school were given on Friday afternoon in the presence of parents and friends of the scholars who completely filled the school house.

Miss Ruth Bushman was the only graduate; she was presented with a diploma and a handsome gold medal for general excellence in all her branches.

At the close of the exercises a few appropriate remarks were made by the pastor, the Rev. Henry Christ. The principal of the school, Prof. Powers, deserves much praise for his energy and patience in drilling the pupils.

Marriages: Roth-Bunty.—May 25, at McSherrystown, by Rev. M. A. Noel, Henry J. Roth, of Conowago township, to Miss Annie M. Bunty, of McSherrystown.

Woodward-Harner.—June 1st, at Mountjoy parsonage, by Rev. W. G. Minnick, Mr. George W. Woodward, of Gettysburg, to Miss Margaret M. Harner, of Cumberland township.

A Pleasant Dinner Party: On Tuesday the 1st day of June, the hospitable doors of the big stone mansion were thrown open by ex-Sheriff Taughinbaugh and a dinner party given in honor of Mrs. Martha Weakley Craighead, a cousin of Mrs. Taughinbaugh's, with her two sons, James and John, from near Carlisle, Mrs. Daniel Craighead, and son and two daughters and Mrs. Bruce Stuart, who have been visiting at Maj. Robert Bell's. After a sumptuous dinner, a horse-back party was enjoyed by the following: Mrs. Martha Craighead, Mrs. Daniel Craighead, Miss Emma Craighead, Miss Gail Bell, Belle Taughinbaugh, Mrs. J. W. Dickson, ex-Sheriff Taughinbaugh, James Craighead, John Craighead and Bruce Stuart.

Telephone Meeting: The annual election of the Adams County Telephone Company was held on Wednesday, when the by-laws were adopted and the following officers were elected:

Pres., Plus A. Miller; directors, George Kump and Dr. C. P. Gettler, of Littlestown; George W. Hartzell, of York Springs; W. A. Himes, of New Oxford; W. M. McIlhenny, E.

Today's Talk

STEADFASTNESS OF PURPOSE

We are all dissectors of the truth. Yet truth doesn't need it at all. It's the pure article. And so we are born into the world to discover for ourselves that which appears to be the truth, our task being to learn, modify our opinions, and to keep seeking for a higher and more honest interpretation, until we arrive at a satisfactory conclusion.

It took a long time before the world accepted such truths as that the world was a globe, or to accept the findings of such men as Harvey, Pasteur, and an endless number of others, whose vision and purpose finally put light into their findings that no man could dispute. Courage, patience, doggedness, yes—but most of all steadfastness of purpose, that wrote out the sceptics, is what has always marked the way to the final demonstration of truth.

"New occasions teach new duties," wrote the poet, but every day proves how valuable are the interchange of ideas, openness of mind to better methods, and an acceptance of discoveries that open still further the paths to more understandable truths, whether in science, medicine, or human relations.

Each step that we take in life is either a step forward or backward. Only through steadfastness of purpose do men go forward, finally coming to a realization of their ideals and definite aims. Concentration and thoroughness, looking neither to the left nor to the right, with an ever increasing purpose, is the pathway to success—and happiness as well.

There are no boundaries to a worthy ambition. Consider how many of our great men and women have come from small towns, from farms, and even from the dire poverty of early years. It was the steadfastness of purpose that gave to us Abraham Lincoln. And history illustrates for us an endless number of such examples that have given lustre to his pages.

When a man is hungry, and no other means are available to appease this condition, he will work that he may earn his bread, and thereby become bodily satisfied. From the Sermon on the Mount you will read this: "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness." Only as we hunger in our mind and heart can we gain our objective, but steadfastness of purpose is the unfailing cue to guide us to that end.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Day's Work"

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST
The Poet of the People

BEST OF WELCOMES
Kings have crowds to wave and cheer.

Heroes draw a welcoming throng.
When celebrities appear
Flatterers follow them along;
But no welcome's quite so true

When the work of day is done,
As to have a child or two
Come to greet you on the run.

Fine it is, I'm sure, to see
Strangers gathered in a mass,
Hailing you delightedly

As along the road you pass;
But the welcome best of all
At the setting of the sun,
Is to have your children small

Come to greet you on the run.
Strangers, quick to cheer success,
Are as quick to mock and jeer.
Fame but briefly men possess,
Newer conquerors follow near;
But a more enduring thing
Out of love and gladness spun
Is that glorious welcoming
Of your children on the run.

TRAFFIC TOLL HEAVIEST OVER MAY 30 HOLIDAY

(By The Associated Press)

At least 21 persons died violently in Pennsylvania over the long Memorial Day week-end.

Twelve of the dead were traffic fatalities while five persons drowned. The other four deaths were attributed to falls and over-exertion. Most spectacular of the many accidents which marred the week-end was the crash of an army monoplane and moving trailer-truck at Conneville Sunday.

The truck driver, David Morris, 38, Tyrone, N. C., died of internal injuries but the pilot, Sgt. William Smiley, Uniontown, escaped with minor injuries. The plane was coming in low for a landing.

List of Victims

Besides Morris, these were the traffic fatalities: John Breining, 24, Elkton, Md., by a trolley, Philadelphia; Ignacius J. Glackin, 65, York, by a car, York; Theodore Hollinger, 21, Bethlehem, car collision; Hugo Leonard, 17, Alliance, Ohio, crash near Penn's Park; Justice H. Harris, 78, Corry, car collision; Mrs. Mavis Handerson, 41, West Newton, struck and killed by a train; C. A. Brown, 27, Morton, crash near Media; James Smeal, 22, Morrisdale, auto accident; Jackson Hubler, 17, Morrisdale, auto accident; John Cholech, 67, Coalport, struck and killed by car; Joseph T. Nartovich, 25, Canonsburg, car collision.

Those who drowned were: Russell Ominos, six, Philadelphia, in Cobb's Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hawks and Earl Davis, Sharpshooter, who died when their motorboat overturned on Shenango River; Julian T. Harris, 53, Philadelphia, whose body was taken from Delaware River at Philadelphia.

Those whose deaths were listed as miscellaneous were: George W. Gibbons, 47, Philadelphia, in a fall down the stairs of his home; Mrs. Anna Valentine, 67, Duncannon, of a cerebral hemorrhage climbing a hillside to decorate graves at a cemetery; Charles Herring, 69, Radersville, beneath a beam in a barn during a storm, and Elizabeth Jean Key, three and one-half, Victoria, suffocated when she fell into a privy.

Four Teams Bunched In Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)

The Eastern league race found the four first division teams closely bunched today but the fast-moving Wilkes-Barre Barons remained on top after extending their winning string to seven games.

The Barons took advantage of the breaks to score twice in the ninth inning last night and nip the Albany Senators, 4-3.

The win put the Barons a game and a half in front of Williamsport Tigers, who downed the Binghamton triplets, 10-5.

Shortstop Johnny Koshorek paced Williamsport by blasting a home run in the seventh inning with the bases clogged and the score tied at five-all. The Tigers added another unneeded run in the eighth.

The third-place Utica Blue Sox, two games behind the leaders, were forced into idleness when rain halted their game against Elmira in the first inning.

In the circuit's other contest, Hartford's fourth place Chiefs fell, 11-5, before the Scranton Miners. Left-fielder Tommy West and shortstop Freddy Hatfield hit home runs for the winners.

Despite the setback, the Chiefs were only two and a half games out of first place.

Lebanon Driver Wins At Reading

Reading, Pa., June 3 (AP)—Mark Light, Lebanon, Pa., outsped a number of Indianapolis speedway competitors Sunday to win the 25-lap Reading Sweepstakes in 11:43.96 over the Reading Fair grounds one half mile oval.

Light took the lead in the season's second AAA sanctioned Big A car race in the 20th lap when he passed Hank Rogers with a clever bit of maneuvering.

Bill Holland, Bridgeport, Conn., and Ted Horn, Paterson, N. J., second and third respectively at the Indianapolis "500" and Joe Chitwood, Reading, another $500 entry, all were forced to the sidelines by engine trouble and failed to finish.

Holland's auto burst a connecting rod in the time trials and he was through for the afternoon. Horn's entry failed when he was leading by a comfortable margin in the sweepstakes and a cracked piston ended Chitwood's hopes.

MIZE, M'QUINN LEAD HITTERS IN TWO LOOPS

New York, June 3 (AP)—Johnny Mize and George McQuinn, veteran first basemen of the New York Giants and Yankees respectively, were the individual batting leaders of the major leagues today.

Mize, who trailed Philadelphia's Harry Walker by 27 points last week added 14 points during the past week to go ahead of the Philly Flyhawk with an average of .370. Walker dropped to second place with .362. The figures included games through Sunday.

McQuinn's grip on the top rung was seriously threatened by his teammate, Joe DiMaggio. The 37-year-old first sacker fell off from his gaudy .381 figure of a week ago skidding to .354, only two degrees ahead of DiMaggio. Joltin' Joe has hit safely in his last 15 games and has brought his mark up from the low 20's.

Boudreau Boosts Mark

Lou Boudreau, playing manager of the Cleveland Indians, continued to stay up there with the top hitters by raising his mark to a third place .350, 10 points above St. Louis' Bob Dillinger who was fourth.

Enos (Country) Slaughter's bat rang a merry tune during the past few days to skyrocket the St. Louis Cardinals outfielders' average to .352, good for third place in the National league.

Mize added two more homers last week to increase his pace setting output to 14. Big Jaw also has scored the most runs, 42. Earl Torgeson of the Braves maintained his thin edge over Mize in the runs

Streams Recede After Flooding Communities

Meadville, Pa., June 3 (AP)—Streams swollen by heavy spring rains receded and leveled off in northwestern Pennsylvania today after flooding a dozen communities and wrecking a New-York-Chicago passenger train by washing out a section of the Erie railroad bed.

Most residents of Meadville, a city of 20,000, who had anxiously watched French creek rise in the night, relaxed their fears when a 12-foot crest passed at 2 a. m. (Eastern Standard Time).

The creek had inundated streets on the city's outskirts and authorities were warning fifth ward residents to evacuate when the danger passed. Another six inches of water would have flooded the business district.

A bigger cleanup job was left at suburban Kerntown, where the main highway, connecting Pittsburgh with Erie and Cleveland, was piled with debris as high as 18 inches.

batted in department, 36 to 35. Recruit Frank Baumholtz of the Reds, who has paced the senior circuit batters in total hits practically from the start of the season, increased his total to 52.

Steals Most Bases

Del Ennis, hard hitting outfielder of the Phillies led with 13 doubles and Cooper of the Giants topped the triple hitters with four. Torgeson headed the stolen base artists with seven.

Southpaw Warren Spahn of the Braves added another victory to his collection to boast an 8-0 won and lost mark. He became the only undefeated hurler when schoolboy Rowe of the Phillies, after six wins, was beaten by the Giants. Cincinnati's Ewell Blackwell paced the strikeout pitchers with 46 whiffs.

RACING TITLE IS SCRAMBLED

By SID FEDER

New York, June 3 (AP)—Aside from indicating that Phalanx must have studied Chilean in his youth, the Belmont stakes proved only that the three year old championship is still as scrambled as your morning eggs, and that it will take the Chicago summer galloping to straighten the matter out.

Phalanx showed his linguistic abilities definitely Saturday by bouncing in with the Belmont by five lengths to finally make some amends—at $6.00 for $2 per amend—for his fancy floppers in the Derby and Preakness.

Up to the Belmont, he had been exposed to Kentucky Italian—as spoken by Eddie Arcaro—and he got no place in a hurry.

But Saturday Trainer Syl Veitch made a switch and put Chilean Ruperto Donoso aboard for the Belmont. And when Ruperto asked the gentleman from Virginia the same questions he couldn't answer for Eddie, the gentleman turned out to be the entire quiz program.

Faultless, who pranced in the Preakness and whizzed in the Withers, was supposed to win the Belmont. This was to have made him a shoo-in for the three-year old crown. The customers were so sure of it they backed him down to 3 to 4 and burned up more than $315,000 on him in the mutuels.

Instead, after getting up to Phalanx's flanks, just before the field straightened out for home, Faultless began to falter. He faltered all the way to the wire to finish fifth, ten lengths away from the head end, and trailing Phalanx, Tide Rips, Talpsin and Young Peter in that order.

Altoona Prepares For Vote On Movies

Altoona, Pa., June 3 (AP)—Petitions were being prepared here today seeking a referendum, which if carried in the September 9 primary, would permit Sunday movies to be shown in Altoona. A similar proposal was rejected by voters in 1935.

Other petitions were prepared to seek local liquor option elections in Altoona, the boroughs of Tyrone and Duncansville, and Allegheny township. Sales are now permitted in all except Duncansville.

Baltimore Livestock
CATTLE—Receipts at the opening of the week were sharply increased over the same period a week ago. It was largely a steer run with trading in general active; in fact, it was the most active market in recent weeks. All interests were in the market.

Slaughter steers steady to strong as compared with the close of last week. Condition of the slaughter steer supply favored the buyers' side in trading. Average good to choice steer, 1,200-1,400 pounds, $15-16.50; choice fed, about three truck loads all told, $25, day's top, $30-1,165 pounds; medium and low good short fed and good fat, 1,100-1,300 pounds, $12-13.25, with strictly medium $11.50 and an odd lot of common $11.50.

Hogers also steady to strong with the close of last week. Medium to average good lightweight $17.50-22.50, with a small supply of top good and extra $23-25. Cow trading steady as compared with the close of last week. Common and medium rows of dairy breeding $15-15.50, with top medium beef cows $18. Canners and cutters $19-13, with shelly canners $9.50 to $8.

Bull trade strong as compared with last week's close. Good beef bulls scarce, the available supply $18-19.25. Medium and good weights, sausage largely $15-16.50, with a few odd head, having exceptionally good yielding qualities, $17. Light and medium weight sausage bulls, $21-24. 14.50 stocker and feeder trade steady with the close of last week. Top good and choice stockers and feeders about. Medium to average good mostly 800 pounds down $18-21.50, with a sizable supply of common $16-17.

CALVES—Vendors active and steady with the close of last week. Demand broad on the part of all interests. Mixed lots of good and choice 150-220-pound $20-24, with strictly choice $25. Common and medium $18-18 and culls $8.

HOGS—Today's hog receipts supplemented by a sizable carryover from Saturday of last week to make one of the largest hog runs in recent weeks. Trading in general active with all interests in the market. Prices 25c. higher than the close of last week advancing practical top $25. Good and choice hogs, and gilts, 120-140 pounds, $22.50-22.75; 140-160 pounds, $23.75-24; 160-250 pounds, $24.75-25; 250-275 pounds, $25-25.25; 275-300 pounds, $25-25.25; 300-350 pounds, $25-25.25; 350 pounds up, $26-26.25. Good and choice $18-18.25, heavy sows considerably lower.

SHEEP—Spring lambs opened active and 50c. higher than the close of last week, however incoming receipts large enough to far surpass day's estimated figure and late trade slow at the advance. Mixed lots of good and choice spring lambs, $22-24. Mixed lots of medium and good $18-22, with lower grades in too meager supply to warrant a fair test of the market.

Slaughter ewes scarce, trading active and prices unchanged from the close of last week. Odd head lots of choice fresh shorn ewes $8-8.50 with common and medium grades $4-7.50.

with burning down the three-room cabin near Huntsdale on Christmas Day, 1945, when his three children, Sylvester, Jr., 2; Pearl Ruth, 3, and Emma Mae, 4, perished in the flames.

Wilson Remains Cabin
Wilson took the sentence with the same calm that he showed all through the week-long trial of the week of May 12 Judge Sheely told him "the court considers you a very fortunate man in that you were not found guilty of first degree murder." The sentences were from 10 to 20 years on each count of second degree murder and two to 10 years for arson. The court directed that all of the sentences are to run concurrently.

Wilson was one of 15 defendants called for sentence by District Attorney Dale F. Shughart.

In his opening remarks, Judge Sheely said, "All of us share the deep sense of loss and grief for Judge Reese. However, under the laws of our Commonwealth, regardless of the circumstances, the court must continue." Judge Sheely said, "We have lost an outstanding leader, the community has lost a friend, Dickinson Law School has lost an outstanding, able teacher and everyone has lost a friend."

In concluding his brief address Judge Sheely asked the attendants and spectators in the court room to stand in silence for a minute in tribute to "a great leader."

Delay Motorcycle Action
Council directed the borough engineer to repair or replace walls along the Tiber west of Carlisle street and adjacent to North Stratton street. Winebrenner reported that the latter wall had been washed out recently. He was also authorized to put in a new storm sewer on Water street property near North Stratton street where new houses have recently been erected. Council authorized the purchase by the highway department of a truckload of patching tar for street repairs, and purchase of a new lawnmower of the hand type for the sewage disposal plant. It tabled for another month action on the proposed purchase of a motorcycle for the police department.

A request for the moving of a traffic light on Baltimore street which is on a pole adjoining the driveway of Frank Pitzer was also tabled, until new traffic signals are ready to be placed in the borough. Winebrenner reported that Pitzer has a permit to widen the driveway and asked that the pole and traffic light be moved.

Receipt of a check from the Little Cab company for $100, and $50 cash from the Reaver Cab company was reported. The borough does not "charge rent" for the taxi stands on the square, and the money is accepted as "contributions" councilmen said.

Acting Highway Head
Continued requests for new street numbers met with no action. An ordinance setting up a new system for numbering property in the borough was referred some time ago to the ordinance committee. No report has yet been made by this committee.

In the absence of Councilman L. D. Shearer, Councilman C. L. Butt was named acting chairman of the highway committee.

CORPSE FOUND IN OIL BARREL BAFFLES POLICE

Philadelphia, June 3 (AP)—Police were confronted today with one of their most baffling mysteries following the discovery of a blonde woman's body in an oil barrel in a secluded ravine.

The corpse was wrapped in a May 7 newspaper, padded with sawdust and doubled up in the discarded 50-gallon metal drum.

A bath towel from a New Jersey hotel, a dark raincoat, a full set of woman's clothing and a heavy cardboard lining also were in the barrel.

The discovery was made late yesterday by a junk dealer in an eight-foot ditch in northeast Philadelphia, only a short distance from a cemetery.

Fugitive's Wife Missing

Deputy Coroner Matthew A. Roth said an autopsy would seek to determine how the unidentified woman died. A superficial examination showed only that she was "dead before she was packed away," he added. "Our first task," he said, "is to identify her."

She apparently had been dead 10 to 21 days. City hall officials said the only "missing" woman of about the same stature was Mrs. David Almeida, wife of one of the fugitives sought for the killing of Pa-trolman Cecil Ingling. She had been reported abducted.

However, police said there was no evidence to support a supposition the body was hers.

It was the second mystery in this area of its kind in two months. A woman found in a trunk at Keyport, N. J., on April 19, has not yet been identified.

In the pocket of one she wrote a note to the one who might receive the dress. About a week ago she received the following letter of thanks from Poland:

April 16th, 1947

Dear Miss Barbara:
"I take the liberty to send you a salutation from the other side of the ocean to thank you for the sent gifts, which are a precious treasure in these heavy days. Full of gratitude I write these lines to thank you from all my heart for the gifts which I have got for my family from the Catholics in America. My family belong to this class of society which has been specially persecuted by the Germans. Several members of my family have been killed. I must take care of my sister whom I wish to give a good education for they must work as soon as possible to gain their life and help our poor Poland. I have just received with the greatest gratitude the clothing sent by the American people as well as the food all very nourishing. I am 23 years of age. I have attended in gymnasium.

Johnstown, Pa., June 3 (AP)—The Sylvania Electric Products company announced last night it will close its plant here July 1, idling about 200
